London Reversal

London Reversal: Asia session consolidates or fails to expand from the low/high it created. London sweeps the low of Asia & expands away from this low. This forms the high / low & we seek New York Continuation.

London Reversal

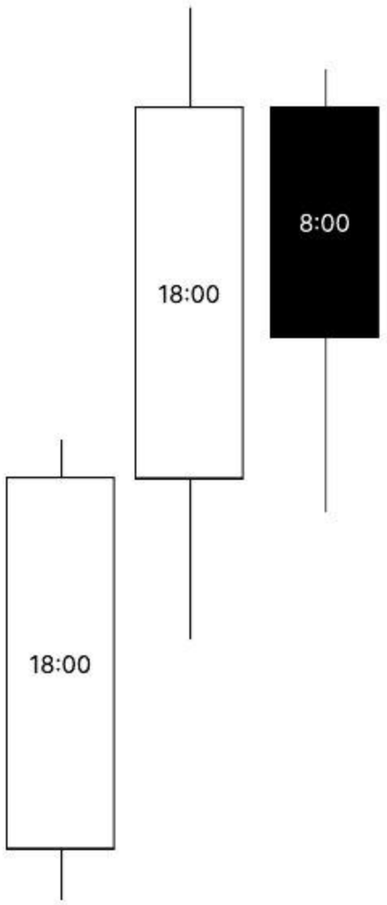

New York Reversal: Previous sessions fail to create a valid LOD / HOD. New York Takes the lows or highs of both these sessions & creates the intraday reversal. If both sessions did not create a valid low or high of day New York has to do so.
